

Ushapa Fortescue

Ushapa is a Graduate of Manchester Metropolitan University, has a CELTA, a Teacher Training certificate for the Post 16 sector and is a certified trainer for the Oxford Teacher's Academy courses.

With over 14 years of varied teaching experience both in the UK and abroad.

The combination of qualifications means that in the UK she has taught in primary and secondary schools, post 16 adult education, private language schools, Further Education colleges and Universities.

The students range from very young learners to teenagers and young adults. From general adult classes up to exam classes and Pre University classes up to Post Graduate classes.

She has worked in many European countries and India and has provided teacher training in Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Croatia, Latvia, Russia, Ukraine, Egypt, Vietnam, Taiwan and China. This has included leading teacher training workshops, presentations, speaking at conferences and short courses.

Ushapa loves engaging and encouraging teachers so they can pass on a love of language learning to their students.
